Objectives

1. Review the management of acute bacterial skin and skin structure infections (ABSSSI)
2. Discuss the use of antimicrobials for the treatment of ABSSSI (with a focus on vulnerable populations)
3. Discuss cases and take away points from St. Joseph's Healthcare (SJHC) pilot project

Speaker

Janhavi Bhalla, PharmD, BScH

Janhavi has completed her BSc from the University of Waterloo School of Public Health and Health Systems and went on to pursue her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Waterloo School of Pharmacy.

Currently, Janhavi is a pharmacist for the Infectious Disease Program at St. Joseph's London, ON. Her area of expertise is HIV and viral hepatitis including hepatitis C and hepatitis B. She also supports the antimicrobial stewardship sub-committee at St. Joseph's and is recently elaborating on her role by supporting the cellulitis clinic in managing their antimicrobial use and supply.
